

Share Your Love: Hope Clarke 1975

Your opinion please.

This is an old UK/USA label release from the 70's that was never a hit but I think it's wonderful and she has a great voice.

She's now a famous US choreographer but then, 31 years ago, she was a gospel singer and actress.

Do you like it? The song? The voice? Let me know please on the TS message board.

I just came across it in our archives and absolutely loved it.

Do you?
