

It's going to get much, much worse for the media

Friday, 29 July 2011

The seriously sleazy stuff, including illegal acts such as bribery of police and CPS officials, has yet to emerge and will do so if the police investigation is honest and efficient.

First major element is active now - as the corporations like News International start deserting their employees, those individuals are going to begin talking, starting with Glen Mulcaire.

And certain currently secret behaviour will get mentioned and facts revealed (such as using "middle men" like PR persons to pay policemen, CPS officials, lawyers, judges, witnesses...)

I'm waiting for several honourable men and women to come forward with evidence of corrupt and illegal behaviour in my own prosecution and investigation. And I become more and more certain that will happen.
